that Cottolene makes better pastry than lard, is more reliable than lard, more cleanly than lard, more healthful than lard, and is superior to lard for frying and shortening. COT-TOLENE is recommended by expert cooks and endorsed by scientists. Once used always used. Sold in 3 and 5 lb. pails. See that trade mark—steer's head in cotton-plant wreath—is on the pail.

THE INCOME TAX CASES.

Points Presented in a Brief Submitted to the Supreme Court.

A brief has been filed in the United States Supreme Court on a motion to advance the New York income tax cases now pending there. The following points are presented:

1. "The bill presents a proper case for equity interposition. A court of equity has jurisdiction at the instance of a stockholder in a corporation to restrain a threatened breach of trust on the part of the director voluntarily paying out of the corporate funds for an unconstitutional tax. The constitutional question is necessarily involved in the decision of these cases. Numerous decisions are cited, in one of which, Shelton vs. Pratt, 220 U. S. 691, Mr. Chief Justice Fuller stated the following directly in point:

"The ground upon which Dodge vs. Woody proceeded was that a stockholder had a remedy in chancery against the directors of his corporation to restrain them from doing acts which would amount to a violation of the charter, or to prevent any misapplication of their capital or profits, which might lessen the value of the shares, if the acts intended to be done amounted to a breach of trust or duty, and that the refusal of the directors to assist the collection of a tax, which they themselves believed to have been imposed upon them in violation of their charter, was in legal effect a breach of trust.

2. "In addition to the element of breach of trust on the part of directors, there is the certainty that as long as the various questions presented remain undecided by the Supreme Court in the United States, the failure to contest the act will involve multiplicity of suits with shareholders of the trust companies, as well as with the beneficiaries for whom it is acting.
